

FISCAL NOTE

HB 421 - SB 740

March 17, 2001

SUMMARY OF BILL: Establishes a maximum amount that a licensed physician may charge for testimony by deposition or for preparation of a narrative report or affidavit and authorizes the filing of a petition against the physician for noncompliance.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

Increase State Expenditures - Not Significant

Assumes the hearing of any petition for noncompliance would require additional court time, however, this is not estimated to be significant.
